II. RULES FOR LESSORS OF BREEDING ANIMALS TO 4-H/FFA YOUTH

1. Relinquish all rights to train, handle, and care for the horse in order for the youth to complete the requirements of a 4-H horse project. Potential owners should not lease horses they want to ride or show on a regular basis during the term of the lease.
2. Not take the horse back prior to the end of the lease unless the youth is neglecting or abusing the animal, or the youth agrees to return the animal.
3. Have the youth (or parent/legal guardian) sign whatever agreements they decide upon in regard to care of the animal.
4. Allow the youth to transport and show the horse in 4-H, open, or breed shows.

If animal remains on lessor's property during the lease, the lessor agrees to:

1. Cooperate with the lessee in scheduling times to allow the member to work with/care for the animal(s) on the lessor's property.
2. Help the lessee better understand the horse industry.
3. Teach the lessee proper techniques in breeding animal care.

III. RULES FOR LESSEES

1. The lessee is responsible for the daily care of the animal in whatever manner decided upon by them and the lessor. However, this must include major responsibility and performance by the lessee for this care.
2. The lessee will be responsible to write up an agreement in consultation with the lessor to cover who is responsible for expenses of care of the animal and who is liable in case of injury or death of the animal. Both the lessor and lessee must sign it, and a copy of that agreement be attached to this contract agreement.
3. Showing expenses will be the responsibility of the lessee.
