Livestock Committee Membership

To be eligible for Livestock Committee Adult Membership:

1. Potential applicant must submit a completed Junior Fair Livestock Committee Application by the deadline.
2. If elected as a Junior Fair Livestock Committee member and the applicant is not a current 4-H Volunteer, the applicant must be willing and able to complete the 4-H Volunteer Selection Process to become an approved volunteer.

To remain a member of the committee, members must complete the following list of requirements:

1. Member will call the President or Extension Office for an excused absence; three unexcused absences will serve as a member's resignation from the committee.
2. Member must assist with Livestock Quality Assurance or Livestock Skillathon.
3. Member must help with pre-fair weigh-in, fair weigh-in, shows and barn meetings.

General Information

1. Members are elected to a three-year term to either: beef, dairy, sheep or swine.
2. Livestock Committee meets four times a year: March, May, July and September. A special meeting may be called, if necessary, by the President.
